

Name: Prof. Sudipto Bhattacharya

Designation: Associate Professor

Qualification:

B.Sc. (Tech), Textile Technology, MBA, PhD

Certified Start-up Mentor from London Business School

Certified Entrepreneurship Educator (with Honors) from STVP, Stanford University

Interest areas:

International Business, Entrepreneurship, Strategic Management. International Collaboration in Business Academics, First generation Entrepreneurs

Brief Introduction about yourself:

- 7 years of industrial experience followed with 14 years of varied experiences in teaching graduate & post graduate business, textile & fashion technology programs.
- Invited as National Expert from India to research on Entrepreneurship in APO Economies by Asian Productivity Organization, Tokyo, Japan
- Retained as resource person and mentor for UNIDO program to develop aspiring entrepreneurs from West African Mano-river countries and capacity building of the Entrepreneurial ecosystem through incubation
- External Examiner & Moderator at Technopreneurship Development Institute, Harare Institute of Technology, Zimbabwe
- Contributed in Board of Studies in Private and Public University courses as subject experts and delivered invited talks on subjects of contemporary relevance.
- Invited resource person for conducting workshops & series of sessions on Creativity & Innovation, Entrepreneurship, Strategy Formulation & International Business.
- Managed shop floor production and maintenance of Air jet weaving looms of Japanese, Belgian and Indian make and supervising 30-40 workers shifts
- Managed Logistics and material handling function of Garment Manufacturing units, Apparel & Garment Retail outlets and visual merchandising
- Maintaining ISO systems, leading TQM and process & product development of integrated textile plants comprising of spinning, weaving and textile processing