

Name:R.Indradevi

Designation: Associate Professor

Qualification: B.A., MBA., Ph.D

Interest areas: Human Resource Management, Organizational Behaviour, Emotional Intelligence, Leadership and Industrial law and labour Relations

Brief Introduction about yourself:

Dr.R.Indradevi is basically a literature Graduate and has done her PG in Management Studies with specialization in HR. She was heading the Department of Business Administration, Auxilium College for 2 years from 2001 – 2003. At present she is grooming Human Capital in the Business School of VIT University. She has done her research on Human Capital Development in Indian Software Companies and had shared her researchwork in many conferences, including the International Conference on Human Capital Development 2009, and SIBR - UniKL 2014 Conference on Interdisciplinary Business & Economics Researchheld in Malaysia. She is at present guiding 6 Ph.D scholars. She has to her credit published around 40 research papers in Scopus indexed journals and refereed National and International Journals. She has published a book titled“Human Capital Development” with Lambert Academic Publishing, Germany. She is also serving as a reviewer for the journal of “Gender, Work and Organization”,published by Wiley-Blackwell and Editorial Board Member of the “International Journal of Business and Management” published by the Canadian Center of Science and Education.